Why the Honoree is receiving a GEM Award including dates:

Brandi Roberson is a true GEM and it is my privilege to recognize her recent contributions to Collin County. Beginning in August 2024, Mrs. Roberson has become the primary point of contact for all law enforcement officers submitting applications for search and arrest warrants in Collin County. This work is critical and the volume is tremendous: in just 6 months, Mrs. Roberson has processed more than 4,500 warrant applications. Beginning last week, Mrs. Roberson coordinates the scheduling of the Central Jury Room, the the largest public space in any Collin County facility. Effectively utilizing this valuable resource for jury panels and for community events is challenging and important. Mrs. Roberson has taken on these new responsibilities while maintaining her consistent, excellent work in her existing LAJ Coordinator and Court Coordinator responsibilities. Mrs. Roberson's own words exemplify the spirit of this award: "I don't want an easy job, I want a great job."
