Why the Honoree is receiving a GEM Award including dates:

As noted by Judge Wheless, Ms. Langley took it upon herself to go to detention to pick up affidavits of indigence and declarations by parents of their intent to hire attorneys, in order to improve TIDC audit scores and ensure representation for all juveniles in need. Her extra efforts were also noted by Judge Thompson, who reports that Ms. Langley goes above and beyond to forward relevant financial information to the courts in real time for prompt determinations of indigency, and to ensure that any changes in appointed counsel are communicated to defendants before the end of hearings to avoid any delays in those cases. Judge Mason reports that Ms. Langley similarly goes the extra mile for cases in the county courts at law, as well. We are fortunate to have Ms. Langley in this position.

Approved by elected official or department head on the 28th day of September, 2022.
