

Collin County Going the Extra Mile (GEM) Recognition Form

Honoree's Name: Lisa Drummonds

Honoree's Job Title: Animal Control Officer

Department: Animal Services

Years of Service with the County: 10

Why the Honoree is receiving a GEM Award including dates:

Lisa went on her day off to represent the shelter by appearing on Channel 11 to talk about Adopt A Pet Month. She not only made the shelter look good but she provided a lot of useful information on how important it is to all of the shelters to get your animals spayed or neutered to cut down on animal over population. She does so much to get the animals out of the shelter and often goes out of her way on her own time to give the animals another chance for a good home. We have often needed her to do special events and have had to change her schedule to make sure she can be there and she always does what is asked of her. She has gone above and beyond what is normally expected and we do believe this should be awarded since words just don't seem to be enough compared to her unselfish work ethics when it comes to helping the animals here.
