Why the Honoree is receiving a GEM Award including dates:

The desk that processes all of the attorney paysheets got severely behind for multiple reasons. It took several employees to jump in and catch this desk up. Eric was a key player in doing this. He processed 100s of paysheets while maintaining his own workload and assisting in training. He is now the trainer of the CAAPs process and processes the majority of the paysheets while keeping his desk duties current. He is an asset to the Auditor's department as well as to the County. He is dedicated and committed to achieving excellence in his job duties and is always willing to assist when necessary.
