Why the Honoree is receiving a GEM Award including dates:

When two employees of the County Clerk's Treasury Department accepted other job offers, the department was left severely short staffed. Alex gladly took on the duties of the Treasury Clerk until the position could be filled. When the position was filled and the new employee began, Alex stayed with the employee through the training period and provided feedback on the training progress. Alex then trained with the County Clerk's Land and Vitals Functional Analyst so he could provide support during the time she was out of the office. Alex quickly learned the duties and excelled in the role. He continues to offer assistance any where he sees a need; often without being asked. Alex is a valuable member of the County Clerk's Organization and has earned the Honor of receiving a GEM Award.
