Why the Honoree is receiving a GEM Award including dates:

During 2020 and in the midst of the pandemic, Crissy spearheaded transitioning juvenile administrative and paperwork processes to work smoothly both in-person and remotely. She also covered during a busy period at the office when others were out on leave. She is conscious in her work and makes sure things get done on time. She has a "can do" attitude. She's positive, a great team member, and she works efficiently and effectively both with other agencies and the public as well as with her Family Justice Division team. She masters juggling her extensive juvenile docket duties with her CPS duties while still managing to quietly sweep in to help whenever and wherever she is needed. Crissy is an asset to justice in the District Attorney's Office.
