Why the Honoree is receiving a GEM Award including dates:

On November 18, 2020 a prosecutor in our office was threatened by a felony probationer via social media. This matter was quickly brought to the attention of the District Attorney's Investigative Team, and immediate action was taken. Investigator Dale Lundberg and his furry companion Günter watched over the prosecutor's home for two nights outside of his normal business hours. No doubt those were long nights, but their presence made a world of difference to the family involved. Investigator Lundberg didn't hesitate to take on the task, and went above and beyond his normal scope of duties by ensuring the safety of our prosecutor and her family.
