Why the Honoree is receiving a GEM Award including dates:

Greg went above and beyond on getting evidence prepared for his CAC trial during the month of May 2018. He spent numerous hours working on an exhibit for the prosecutors by cutting, marking, gluing, and creating a display that would help create a visual for the jury. He also spent countless hours listening to jail calls and then charting all of the calls as well as putting together timelines and flow charts. He volunteered for these tasks to help his team. He did this in such an efficient and enthusiastic manner and he took much pride in his work. Greg is an incredible team member and is a great asset to the Crimes Against Children's Unit.
