

Collin County Going the Extra Mile (GEM) Recognition Form

Honoree's Name: Brittany Jagger

Honoree's Job Title: Deputy District II

Department: District Clerk's Office

Years of Service with the County: 8YRS.

Why the Honoree is receiving a GEM Award including dates:

On or about May 5, 2022, Brittany Jagger, who is a Clerk II with the District Clerk's Office, was reviewing a legal filing by a pro-se litigant. During her review of the filing there were a few things that struck Brittany as being odd. The first was that the filing was not a typical Civil Family filing that she was used to seeing and secondly, the filing not only had a District Judge's signature as the Foreman of a Grand Jury but it was also certified by a former employee. Brittany immediately brought the filing to the attention of upper management and sought out direction on how to proceed with the filing. Due to the nature of the filing and several discrepancies found within the filing, management found it appropriate to inform the Sheriff's Office of the matter. An investigation was conducted and the litigant was arrested on several different charges in connection with this filing. It was because of Brittany's great attention to detail that a fraudulent document did not get accepted into a case and an unsavory criminal was brought to justice.

Brittany has been with the District Clerk's Office for almost 8 years and continues to be a great asset to this office.
