On May 11th 2023 a customer came to the front counter of the District Clerk's office and informed Liz that they had almost been arrested for a violation of a Protective Order. Liz took the time to look the case up and found the PO had been vacated in 2021. Liz called the Sheriff's Office to inquire about the PO and to see if it was still active in the TCIC system. The SO employee informed Liz that it was still active and asked for her to resend the order to vacate and prove that it has been previously sent to SO. Liz sent all documents to SO in order for the TCIC system to be updated and prevent an unnecessary arrest.
