Since Madison started with the DC office, she is always willing to help assist her Clerk II and Clerk I coworkers in a courteous and helpful manner. The 468th is a busy court however, at times management will need back up at the front counter to lower the wait time and number of customers in the lobby area. When management requests for Madison to help assist at the front counter, she always has a positive and professional attitude with all customers she comes into contact with. She never complains when asked to assist front counter. Madison will often volunteer to help the front counter when she notices the wait times are longer. On top of her great work ethic and her positive attitude, she is a "Go to Person" when coworkers have questions. She is an asset to the DC office.
