On April 24, 2024 Lila was contacted by her court coordinator regarding a case that was set for an upcoming pre-trial conference and jury trial. The case had approximately 20 different attorneys on it and they were filing documents nonstop in order to have them on docket for their scheduled hearings. The court asked that Lila and her court partner make this case a priority for the next few days and process all of their many, many filings as they come in as Judge would need to be able to view all of their pending motions and proposed orders in order to prepare for the pre-trial conference and upcoming jury trial. On April 25, 2024 I received an email for the coordinator of the 429th court thanking Lila and her partner for getting all of the pleadings processed as they had submitted so many filings that week and they had "stayed on top of it perfectly. This is such a great help to the Judge. I really appreciate all of your hard work!" On April 29, 2024 we received another email, this time from Judge Willis praising Lila and her court partner for pushing through dozens of motion and orders that were filed last minute; as a result of their work, Judge was prepared to rule on everything during their 4-hour pre-trial conference and the case was able to settle.
