Why the Honoree is receiving a GEM Award including dates:

Type reason here and make sure to include dates. Name above needs to be name in PeopleSoft.

I would like to recognize Rachael Whittaker for the extraordinary work she does on a daily basis. Protective Orders are very detailed and time consuming and Rachael completes every Protective Order she works in a very neat, timely and organized manner. It is never unclear what her work process was and it is rare that she ever misses a step. Rachael is in a family only court and works a high number of Protective Order case types. In addition to this, Rachael is extremely prompt and dependable and has earned a reputation for someone who can be relied upon for training and providing extra help where and when necessary. Rachael is a great asset to the Collin County District Clerk's Office.
