Why the Honoree is receiving a GEM Award including dates:

Rebecca, as a tenured employee, is a very valuable asset as a Clerk in the Criminal Division of the District Clerk's office. She has been asked to work on many projects and always does so in a knowledgeable and efficient manner.

Her supervisors asked her to help with a sizable project regarding our finance department's escheatment process on cash bonds for old cases from 1996 to present. This project took several weeks to complete and involved a large amount of research and sending out cash bond letters. She fulfilled this task while maintaining her daily duties in a busy court.

Her help with this project allowed some cash bonds to be returned to the rightful parties and allowed the finance department to start the escheatment process for the unclaimed bonds.

Thank you Rebecca, for your hard work, dedication and going above and beyond.
