Why the Honoree is receiving a GEM Award including dates:

While Mr. Pate was doing his duties of blowing the leaves off the walkway at the Bloomdale Courthouse, he noticed what he thought to be a business card, but was actually a Purchase Card for a Collin County Employee. Mr. Pate returned the Purchase Card to the Courthouse Security to ensure the card was returned to the employee.

In addition, during a time when two co-workers were on extended leave, Mr. Pate took on the extra responsibility and tasks to ensure the grounds of Collin County weren't neglected. The Facilities Department is grateful for Mr. Pate's actions and willingness to step up and take on additional responsibilities when needed.
