Going the Extra Mile (GEM) Recognition Form

Honoree's Name: Dustin First Name      Middle Initial       Last Name Douglas

Honoree's Job Title: Criminal Investigator

Department: Criminal Investigations Division

Years of Service with the County: 28

Why the Honoree is receiving a GEM Award including dates:

On September 9, 2024, Investigator Douglas was assigned a case regarding a juvenile female that had run away from home. After interviewing several of the girl's friends, Investigator Douglas learned that the juvenile planned to go to Mexico. Investigator Douglas obtained several search warrants for different social media accounts and later learned that the juvenile had made it to San Antonio, where she was seen at a shelter on September 19th. Investigator Douglas contacted San Antonio Police and advise them of the juvenile's location. On September 20th, the juvenile was located sleeping underneath a bridge. The juvenile was returned safely to her mother's custody.

Thanks to Investigator Douglas' hard work and dedication, the juvenile was safely located and did not make it across the border to Mexico.
