Why the Honoree is receiving a GEM Award including dates:

Deputy Warnell is very deserving of the Employee of the Month award for his unwavering dedication to both Lake Patrol and general patrol responsibilities. He has consistently demonstrated exceptional work ethic, professionalism, and commitment to serving the community. Deputy Warnell has worked multiple weekends over the summer, to include a majority of his designated days off, to ensure the needs of Lake Patrol staffing were met and ensuring the safety of those citizens enjoying Lake Lavon.

Deputy Warnell consistently exemplifies the values of this department and the law enforcement profession as a whole through his professionalism, positive attitude, and teamwork that have made a significant positive impact on overall operations. Deputy Warnell sets an excellent example for his peers and continues to be a valuable asset to the organization.

For these reasons, Deputy Warnell is nominated as Employee of the Month.
