

Collin County Going the Extra Mile (GEM) Recognition Form

Honoree's Name: Addison Holcomb

Honoree's Job Title: Tech I

Department: Health Care Services

Years of Service with the County: 2 years

Why the Honoree is receiving a GEM Award:

Addison is a deserving recipient of this award due to her outstanding performance at the Immunizations Clinic. She handles patient interactions with exceptional accuracy, speed, and professionalism, all while maintaining a calm and welcoming presence. Her impressive multitasking abilities enable her to support the clinic's daily operations effectively, ensuring everything runs smoothly.

As a bilingual staff member, Addison plays a crucial role in facilitating communication with Spanish-speaking patients. She is consistently kind, gracious, and eager to assist others, whether she is answering inquiries, guiding patients through resources, or problem-solving in challenging situations. Addison has been an absolute joy to work with as a member of the Immunizations program.

Her effectiveness and professionalism in all her duties make her an invaluable member of the team and truly deserving of this award.
