Why the Honoree is receiving a GEM Award including dates:

Since starting with Human Resources, Ana has been extremely helpful in volunteering to aid Spanish speaking members of the public, applicants, and employees. Ana assists with Spanish speaking callers transferred from the front desk lines with their questions and needs, and she does so with a reassuring, helpful attitude. Ana also supports employees by interpreting training videos and documents, completing forms, and completing applications. In addition, she attended job fairs or helped create flyers for primarily Spanish speaking applicants to assist with recruiting information and applications. Ana continuously has a positive, caring attitude. Even with her own job duties and responsibilities, she is happy to help whenever needed. She often sees what is needed and assists without being asked or volunteers to help. Ana's ability to interpret and assist Spanish speakers is invaluable to the department and contributes to the overall objectives of Collin County.
