

Collin County Going the Extra Mile (GEM) Recognition Form

Honoree's Name: Carryll Wang

Honoree's Job Title: Research Specialist

Department: Collin County Homeland Security

Years of Service with the County: 9 months

Why the Honoree is receiving a GEM Award including dates:

Carryll Wang is receiving the Going the Extra Mile (GEM) Award for her exemplary analytical support to an 8 month long multi-jurisdictional criminal investigation involving the Federal Department of Homeland Security, the Collin County Sheriff's Office, McKinney Police Department, and the Fannin County Sherriff's Office. These cases spanned a period of 8 months, from July 2015 – March 1st 2016. Ms. Wang's tireless and unwavering dedication to these investigations ultimately led to the seizure of more than 2 million dollars as well as charges of criminal conspiracy and the indictment of multiple individuals in Collin County and North Texas. Her strong commitment to fostering working and lasting partnerships with Federal, State and Local partners in the Task Force environment reflect great credit upon Ms. Carryll Wang, and Collin County.
