Why the Honoree is receiving a GEM Award including dates:

Josh Parrish has done an amazing job. He has gone above and beyond on many things this year. One example is where he stayed on top of all of the security patches for the Exchange servers. There are so many people trying to gain access to system around the world and he has managed to keep those people out. Also, this year he has been tasked with so many open records request. Josh has completed all of these in a timely manner.

Josh amazes me with his knowledge on the Exchange server environment. He is very worthy and deserving of the GEM award.
