Why the Honoree is receiving a GEM Award including dates:

During the month of May 2018 it came to Officer Chambliss' attention that a child on his caseload did not have a bed. The child had been relocated from his mother's home to another family member who was unable to purchase a bed for the child. Officer Chambliss researched the best options and pricing and was able to secure donations from an outside source to purchase a mattress and bedding supplies. Officer Chambliss' compassion and initiative to go the extra mile to help this child will have a great impact on his day to day life.
