Why the Honoree is receiving a GEM Award including dates:

On January 7, 2016, Officer Felix Valdez was recognized by the 417th Judicial District Court for above and beyond case management. In order to promote community protection and rehabilitation for a juvenile in the community, Officer Valdez identified the juvenile and family was having a difficult time making office appointments. Officer Valdez took the initiative to meet with the juvenile at his school in order to promote successful supervision. Officer Valdez also chose to meet with the juvenile every two weeks to ensure the juvenile was adhering to terms of supervision and performing well in school, despite this intensity of supervision and face-to-face contact not being required by the Court. This type of supervision and intervention ensures departmental cost savings by reducing the likelihood of future incarceration and citizen victimization.
