Why the Honoree is receiving a GEM Award including dates:

Jeremy has been paramount in keeping statistics on all the PAD residents starting in 2015 through 2016 for MRT (Moral Recognition Training) life skills. We were able to submit the numbers of residents participating, number of MRT steps completed in the program - gender, age, ethnicity of residents entering the program, number of incarcerations in JDC, criminal offenses, substance abuse or anger concerns and background demographics to name a few. We were able to have this information submitted so that it could be read as a useful analytical data report - which allows us to identify trends in our population. He was also instrumental in updating the JDC Policy and Procedure Manual which we recently submitted in March of 2017.
