

Collin County Going the Extra Mile (GEM) Recognition Form

Honoree's Name: Jeremy Jones

Honoree's Job Title: Assistant Detention Superintendent

Department: Juvenile Probation Department

Years of Service with the County: 14

Why the Honoree is receiving a GEM Award including dates: Exceptional performance covering duties of two administrative positions during state audit, July 30 – August 3, 2018.

During the state audit, Jeremy Jones was able to perform the duties for what is designated for two (2) positions. Those positions include his current designation as Assistant Detention Superintendent and Compliance Officer which was vacant due to a sudden departure of personnel prior to the audit. State audits are extremely stressful and demanding. Jeremy committed himself to long hours and despite having very little time in his new designation, performed exceptional well, helping the facility yield an exceptional compliance rating during the yearly audit.
