

Collin County Going the Extra Mile (GEM) Recognition Form

Honoree's Name: Roy Storey

Honoree's Job Title: Juvenile Supervision Officer/Transport Team

Department: Juvenile Probation

Years of Service with the County: 29 years

Why the Honoree is receiving a GEM Award including dates:

On January 9, 2025 Officer Jacob Martin, Officer Roy Storey and Officer Shawna Walton displayed heroic action that resulted in saving the life of another Collin County employee. Meal Tech Don White was coming from probation with a dolly of supplies when Officer Martin noticed he seemed to be struggling. Officer Martin approached Mr. White and asked if he was o.k. Mr White then collapsed as Officer Martin attempted to catch Mr. White as he fell to the ground. Officer Martin then checked Mr. White for breathing and pulse and determined that he was not breathing and had no pulse. Officer Shawna Walton arrived and called 911 to get emergency assistance. Officer Martin and Officer Roy Storey, who had arrived on the scene, immediately began CPR. After a brief time of chest compressions, Officer Storey and Martin were able to get a pulse and Mr. White took a few breaths on his own. These Officers were able to utilize their training for life saving skills and successfully revive Mr. White.
