

Collin County Going the Extra Mile (GEM) Recognition Form

Honoree's Name: Mark Gross

Honoree's Job Title: Community Supervision Officer

Department: Community Supervision and Corrections Department

Years of Service with the County: 16

Why the Honoree is receiving a GEM Award including dates:

Mark Gross is a Community Supervision Officer for CSCD and has been with the CSCD field team since it's inception in 2013. During this past year, Officer Gross and two other members of the field team made sure that all required field work was completed that included a substantial increase in their workload. They took on the additional work without hesitation and put in the extra effort and coordination that was needed in order to accomplish this task. Additionally in April of this past year, Officer Gross trained the first new member of the field team in over a decade. With the increase in their workload, they maintained a high level of excellence and professionalism. Officer Gross should be recognized for his hard work and deserves this GEM award.
