

Collin County Going the Extra Mile (GEM) Recognition Form

Honoree's Name: Ronald Wayne Anderson

Honoree's Job Title: Superintendent

Department: Public Works Road & Bridge

Years of Service with the County: 15 years, 11 months

Why the Honoree is receiving a GEM Award including dates:

During the COVID-19 pandemic, Wayne assumed various additional responsibilities as other employees commenced working from home. He began administering the road reconstruction contracts while coordinating specific language and provisions with the Purchasing department. In addition to monitoring these contracts, he supervised the Inspectors reviewing the road projects. Wayne was also instrumental in developing a pavement inspection program which will allow Public Works to estimate future maintenance budgets.

Because of his knowledge, precision and diligence with managing these contracts and contributions to the pavement inspection system, I nominate Ronald Anderson for the GEM award.
