Why the Honoree is receiving a GEM Award including dates:

On September 18, 2019 Sergeant Brad Denison was on his scheduled lunch at, approximately 1200, at the Race Track Gas station located on highway 380, and Highway 75. While at this location Sergeant Denison witnessed a head on accident and responded accordingly. While responding Sergeant Denison called 911 to alert Police and EMS. During this incident Sgt. Denison also rendered first aid to a citizen that was involved in the accident that had suffered a large laceration to her foot. Sergeant Denison used his medical training to apply bandages and pressure to keep the injured female from suffering major blood loss. Once on scene Sergeant Denison was relieved by responding EMS.

Sergeant Denison's quick thinking and response to the scene while on personal time gave an accurate account of the situation to responding personnel, accelerated the response time, and prevented an injured citizen from possibly suffering major blood loss.

Sergeant Denison's initiative and actions reflect great credit upon himself and his commitment to service on behalf of the citizens of Collin County, the Sheriff's Office and those he is charged with protecting.
