

Collin County Going the Extra Mile (GEM) Recognition Form

Honoree's Name: Brice Bush
First Name Middle Initial Last Name

Honoree's Job Title: Detention Officer

Department: Collin County Detention Facility

Years of Service with the County: 1

Why the Honoree is receiving a GEM Award including dates:

Officer Bush is receiving this GEM Award based on his willingness to go the extra mile. Recently, Officer Bush was tasked with finishing a training for a trainee down in booking, even though he was not currently a Field Training Officer. He had no idea that he would be asked to take on this daunting task, not only would he have to focus and reflect back on everything he knows but also how to put into words on how to complete tasks to a trainee. Officer Bush accepted the challenge but he exceeded all expectations and was able to train the trainee and pass him to be a fully trained Admission and Release Officer. Officer Bush did so even though he was unsure of his capabilities, and at times due to staffing strains, was having to work multiple areas all the while having to be the watchful eye over his trainee. Due to him conducting this task so well the Training and Compliance Office honored him by assigning him to be an official Field Training Officer. Based on the actions of Officer Bush I recommend him to receive a GEM Award.
