SUBJECT: October 2020 Employee of the Month Nominee from C Shift

Sir,

C Shift supervision would like to nominate Detention Officer Conner Rodgers for October 2020 Employee of the Month. Officer Rodgers has been employed with the Sheriff's Office since 2019.

In his short time with the office, he has exhibited exceptional work habits. He often goes the extra mile to help his fellow officers during their routine duties and during times of stress. This includes using his exemplary communication skills to assist with difficult inmates. Officer Rodgers is often called upon to de-escalate mental inmates or other tense situations when other options have been exhausted.

He often volunteers to cover overtime shifts so other officers won't have to stay on their standby days. His attitude is always professional and helpful with inmates, his peers, supervisors and other staff members.

Officer Rodgers received an achievement award this past week for locating drugs in housing pod 5B during a routine observation round. The drugs were tucked up underneath a sink in the restroom, wrapped inside a jumper. Officer Rodgers took the time to investigate something which didn't "look normal" and was able to remove a danger which may have harmed any inmate who may have ingested it. This created a safer and more secure environment for the facility.

Thank you for your consideration.
