Re: GEM Award

On June 28, 2012 Deputies McGill and Cass responded to an injured animal call at [REDACTED] CR 1109. There was an injured goat on the reporting person's porch that had apparently been attacked by a dog. Deputies responded by contacting animal control to come to the aide of the injured animal. Deputies McGill and Cass diligently searched the area for the animal that had attacked the goat. They were unable to find the animal. Deputies did find several other goats in the area and one of them was badly injured from an apparent attack by a dog. There were now two goats that required the aide of animal control.

Deputies McGill and Cass went above and beyond in their attempt to locate the animal that was attacking the goats and checking the welfare of the other goats in the area.

I would like to nominate these two deputies for a GEM award. Their professional response to the situation should be commended.
