I would like to nominate Evelyn Fischer for Employee of the Month. During the past month, Officer Fischer has filled in at the Collin County Courthouse for several days, allowing other officers to attend training and take scheduled vacation time. I received many compliments from employees at the courthouse about what a great job she did while working there. She was polite, helpful, and handled every situation that arose professionally and thoroughly. Officer Fischer should be recognized for her commitment to the mission of the Sheriff's Office to provide outstanding service to the citizens of Collin County.
