Why the Honoree is receiving a GEM Award including dates:

On July 8th, 2020, Sheriff Skinner received an email from a citizen detailing the outstanding service of Deputies Garza and Castillo provided to a stranded female motorist on US 380, East of Princeton. The citizen wrote, "hats off to a couple of your deputies I saw changing the tire for a young lady east of Princeton this morning. Thank you all for your selfless and humble service."

Deputy Garza was dispatched to US 380 and the bridges in regards to a motorist assist. Upon arrival, he observed a female struggling to change a flat tire. Dispatch received multiple calls from passing motorists that were concerned for her safety. Deputy Garza used his vehicle to insure the driver's safety, changed the flat tire and get her back on the road. This level of service is what it means to go the extra mile.
