Why the Honoree is receiving a GEM Award including dates:

Officer Jeremy Hopkins has been instrumental in the smooth operation of the Booking Section of Platoon 1. He has over 20 years of experience working in multiple areas of the Detention Facility and has performed to the level of expertise, earning him the position of Field Training Officer. Due to his maturity and expertise, was selected to train the Housing Sergeants in all areas of Booking. His knowledge and one-on-one support provided for a training environment that was not only informative, but fun. He not only trains new and seasoned officers, he can be called upon to perform any area of Booking, Housing and Arraignment. For example, he was assigned to the Bonds window and processed 71 bonds within a 12 hour period, while also providing excellent customer service to the citizens needing assistance at the window. Officer Hopkins not only performs his duties superbly, when called upon to support any other area of the jail, he performs the task without complaint and is an excellent team player. He consistently takes overtime shifts for other officers who cannot report for their scheduled overtime shift. He is a shining example that embodies the Assistant Chief's 5 General Orders. Officer Hopkins is an asset to the Collin County Sheriff's Office and displays great dedication in maintaining the highest of standards of professionalism.
