Why the Honoree is receiving a GEM Award including dates:

On May 14, 2019, Deputy Duncan was completing a traffic contact, in his assigned district, when he was approached by an individual who was later identified as "Otto the Watch Dog." Otto, who was filming the encounter, began questioning Deputy Duncan in a manner designed to possibly create a confrontation. Deputy Duncan engaged Otto in conversation while patiently answering all of Otto's questions. When asked, Deputy Duncan provided Otto with his business card and badge number. The professionalism displayed by Deputy Duncan during the interaction seemed to surprise Otto. Throughout this encounter, Deputy Duncan displayed a level of public service that each of us should strive to attain.

Otto placed the video on his "YouTube" channel where it has received numerous positive comments. We have also received positive comments on our Facebook page.
