Why the Honoree is receiving a GEM Award including dates:

Officer Schmidt was transferred to the Admissions/Release Division in 2019. Officer Schmidt has excelled and risen above her peers in the Admissions/Release Division. She is always dependable requires little supervision, never fails to go beyond when performing all tasks and will take on responsibilities without direction. Officer Schmidt regularly volunteers for overtime - working additional shifts almost weekly. She is punctual for all duty assignments and is dependable for scheduling. She maintains an impeccable appearance and always carries herself in a professional manner. Officer Schmidt has become an informal leader amongst her peers and is always willing to assist others no matter the amount of responsibilities she has taken on. She always has a smile on her face, and a positive attitude. She serves as a role model to all her peers and is next in line to become a Training Officer for the Admissions/Release Division. Officer Schmidt is career driven and always seeks to improve herself and others within her division. Her work is always accurate but she is never against taking the opportunity to learn and better herself. She has initiative and wants to promote to Sergeant, seeking mentors to help her become the best possible candidate. Furthermore, Officer Kendall Schmidt's initiative and dedication reflect great credit upon herself and her commitment to service on behalf of the citizens of Collin County, the Sheriff's Office and those she is charged with protecting.
