Why the Honoree is receiving a GEM Award including dates:

Each Detention Operations shift is responsible for regular cell searches. Seeing a gap in accountability and seeking to improve the overall safety of the Collin County Sheriff's Office Detention Facility, Detention Officer Kevin McMillian, along with Dalton Scott, took it upon themselves to update and streamline the form used for tracking regular cell searches (the "Housekeeping" sheet). Officer McMillian expanded his own knowledge of computers to ensure the project was up to the standards set by himself and Officer Scott. Going well beyond what is expected, the project was completed and accepted for use in our daily operation. Officer McMillian exemplifies the employee who always seeks to go the extra mile, not for recognition but for the safety of both staff and inmate alike. As an employee not even off probation, it is emblematic of his character to have sought to make a positive improvement to Collin County at no additional cost to the tax payer. For this reason, Detention Officer Kevin McMillian is worthy of our recognition.
