

Collin County Going the Extra Mile (GEM) Recognition Form

Honoree's Name: Lee Howe

Honoree's Job Title: Deputy Sheriff

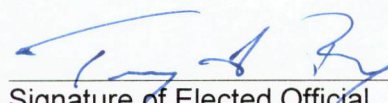

Department: Sheriff's Office

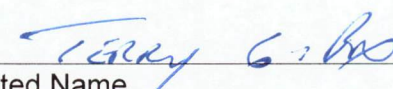

Years of Service with the County: 12

Why the Honoree is receiving a GEM Award including dates:

On 12/10/14 Deputy Howe was dispatched to take a report for a residential burglary. While on his way to the call Deputy Howe passed a vehicle that fit the description of a vehicle that had committed a residential burglary a few days prior to this burglary. Deputy Howe stopped the vehicle for further investigation. After getting the vehicle stopped it was determined that the vehicle contained a television that was stolen during the burglary he was on his way to. Apparently the male and female occupants had just committed the burglary. The male and female in the vehicle were interviewed by investigators and later admitted to not only committing the burglary that Deputy Howe was on his way to but also the burglary from a few days prior. Deputy Howe's attentiveness resulted in the arrest of two burglars who are at minimum responsible for two residential burglaries in Collin County.
