Why the Honoree is receiving a GEM Award including dates:

Investigator McMillian was recently called out to the shooting of a 13 year old child in Melissa by 3 suspects who were attempting to rob the child. During the course of the investigation, one of the suspects was identified. Investigator McMillian was able to reach out to other agencies and mobilize a team to conduct surveillance at the suspect's home. Investigator McMillian obtained a search warrant for the home and formulated an operations plan to execute the warrant. When the warrant was executed, the suspect were apprehended and a confession was given. Another person at the home was identified as the second suspect in the shooting and was also taken into custody. The next day, the third suspect was arrested, all three suspects in this case were charged with three felonies each. Due to Investigator McMillian's determination, skill and dedication to his profession these suspects were arrested within 3 days of the initial call being received.
