Why the Honoree is receiving a GEM Award including dates:

Officer Arant is always going the extra mile with her willingness to be the helping hand whenever needed. Officer Arant has never complained, made negative comments about, or wavered in her attitude towards the job. With an influx of new hires and a lack of Field Training Officers the Training and Compliance Office has been struggling to keep new officers on pace to complete their training program in a timely manner. Officer Arant at times has been tasked to accept additional trainee's on top of her originally assigned trainee. Anyone who has ever trained knows this is a monumental task. To ensure all trainees are receiving effective training along with making sure normal job duties don't fall to the way-side. Officer Arant has been successful in doing just that. She has kept up with all of the reports needed for the documentation of training and still being sure to maintain her positive attitude. Officer Arant shows just how much of leader she is and how dedicated to her profession she is.
