Why the Honoree is receiving a GEM Award including dates:

On June 6, 2019, Scott Mallen sent an email regarding your participation in the Special Olympics program at Princeton High School on April 29, 2019.

Mr. Mallen's described his son, Chandler, as being high functioning on the Autism Spectrum with dreams of being a police officer or fire fighter.

Mr. Mallen was extremely thankful for your interaction with his son and described himself as "a parent, who can never get enough of seeing his son smile and laugh, especially when interacting with the folks he admires so highly!"

Mr. Mallen went onto say, "everywhere you looked they (sp) were happy kiddos having fun and interacting with all the Deputies who stopped by for a few minutes."

The actions of Deputy Farwell are definitely worthy of a GEM award.
