

Collin County Going the Extra Mile (GEM) Recognition Form

Honoree's Name: Sherie Snodderly

Honoree's Job Title: Detention Officer

Department: Collin County Sheriff's Office

Years of Service with the County: 2 1/2 years

Why the Honoree is receiving a GEM Award including dates:

On Saturday February 2, 2018, Detention Officer Sherie Snodderly was assigned as Cluster 3, Movement 1. During her course of duties, she received information that an inmate in pod 3A had illegal drugs in her possession. Detention Officer Sherie Snodderly and Detention Officer Jennifer Lane worked together as a team in an effort to search and seize the illegal drugs. During their search, the drug identified as "meth" was discovered in an inmate's sock.

Detention Officer Sherie Snodderly has been employed with the Sheriff's Office for 2 1/2 years. The course of action she took to recover the illegal drug demonstrates her ability to communicate effectively, work as a team and use sound judgement to ensure the safety and security of the facility, staff and inmates.
