On May 5, 2024, Celina PD got into pursuit of a vehicle which led them into areas outside the known geographical jurisdiction. Shift Supervisor Eades was working the radio position and, knowing the units were unfamiliar with the roadways, took the initiative to advise units of turns in the roadway and crossroads they were approaching. Thus, allowing units to avoid hazards during the pursuit.

Shift Supervisor Eades kept calm throughout the pursuit, which also helped the officers remain calm and ultimately lead to the apprehension of the suspect, while keeping all responding officers and the public safe.
