Housing Platoon 1 would like to recognize Detention Officer Virginia Haydel as Employee of the Month. Officer Haydel begins every shift with a great attitude and work ethic. She loves what she does and it is visible to her supervisors and fellow employees.

Officer Haydel works some of the most challenging areas of the facility, where most officers prefer not to be assigned. She loves working in the housing units with the inmates. She manages her units with a "can do" attitude accomplishing many tasks others do not. On many occasions, she can be seen talking to the mentally ill and getting them to comply where others have tried and failed. Her patient presence and art of listening have made her a valuable employee.

She has prevented medical situations from escalating due to her quick actions and thoughtful approaches. Always willing to lend a helping hand, Officer Haydel is trusted and respected by her peers.

We are grateful for her hard work and dedication to the Sheriff's Office.
