Why the Honoree is receiving a GEM Award including dates:

Alexis should be recognized as a GEM because of her outstanding dedication to being a great Collin County employee. Alexis is one of the most optimistic employees we have working at the Tax Office. She reflects that in her daily duties, the way she talks to customers and co-workers. Alexis is self motivated, guided by the office goals, she always has the Tax Office and customer's best interest in mind. Alexis will not partake in office gossip, in fact I have heard her on multiple occasions redirect the conversation and say to a co-worker, "now don't say that or remember that is none of our concern". She is loved and appreciated by everyone she works with. I have never heard a negative comment come from her or anyone say a negative thing about Alexis. During this really tough year for everyone trying to stay well, and carry the work load during times we were short staffed, she gracefully accepted any new challenge that came her way. She has been a great mentor and example for all to follow. During this tough year, if a fellow co-worker was out, and others were concerned and fussing about catching the virus, again Alexis stepped up and redirected the concerns, advising them not to worry, and not fuss, with standards in place, we were as safe as we could be. She is a great example for our new and seasoned employees alike learning from her. Alexis is a GEM, she goes that extra mile, out of dedication and love for her country, her employer and because she is a loving, caring, hard working lady.
