Why the Honoree is receiving a GEM Award including dates:

Jennifer consistently demonstrates compassion, leadership, and a deep sense of community that extends beyond her day-to-day responsibilities. She is always thinking about the well-being of the entire office and finding ways to support her coworkers both professionally and personally. Recently, when one of our clerks was involved in a terrible accident, Jennifer didn't hesitate to take initiative. She thoughtfully came up with the idea of creating a care basket, personally gathering meaningful items, organizing contributions and putting it all together with care. She spent multiple evenings visiting her coworker, offering comfort and presence during a very difficult time. Through her kindness and leadership, she helped unify the team and reminded us all of the importance of compassion in the workplace.
