Why the Honoree is receiving a GEM Award including dates:

On 10/27/2023, we were very short-staffed in our management team for the day. Our backup supervisor was extremely busy and trying to juggle helping our clerks and also 6 new hires that were finishing up training. Whitney noticed this and immediately said, "How can I help you?" Since the trainer had to leave early that day, she ended up sitting with the 6 new hires for the remainder of the afternoon. Our backup supervisor said this helped her tremendously to focus her attention on the rest of our clerks for the day. This is just one example of many where Whitney jumps in and helps out even if it's something that falls outside of her job duties. Thank you for going the extra mile Whitney!
